

Anvil Arts Handling & Postage Fees

- Handling Fee - Anvil Arts charges a handling fee of £1 per ticket for all bookings that are paid for by credit or debit card (except for Child and Student tickets). Given the substantial discount already offered on Subscription tickets, BATS is unfortunately unable to absorb this handling fee. You can save the cost of the handling fee by paying for your tickets in cash at the Box Office.
- Postage Fee - Anvil Arts charges a £1 flat fee if you require tickets to be posted to you. By agreement with Anvil Arts and exclusively for BATS Subscribers, you can save this fee by including an SAE when you return your booking form. Alternatively, you can request for your tickets to be held at the Box Office for collection on the date of your chosen performance, or at any other time.

2010 - 2011 Season: Disney's Beauty & The Beast and South Pacific

Dear BATS Supporter,

I would like to thank you most sincerely for helping to make our production of My Fair Lady such a huge success! All available subscription tickets were allocated (we were in fact over subscribed) and we played to near sell-out audiences, which helped to make the show a financial success.

It therefore gives me great pleasure to launch our Subscribe & Save Offer for the Nov 2010 - May 2011 season, covering our next two shows, Disney's Beauty and the Beast in November 2010 and Rodgers & Hammerstein's South Pacific in May 2011.

As a subscriber, you benefit by having the best seats in the house at the lowest possible price! This year, we've introduced a two-tier subscription to bring you even better value. The price covers both shows.

Whilst we are delighted to have secured a licence to perform Beauty & The Beast, it will cost almost £50,000 to stage - over £10,000 more than our average budget. As a self-funded and not-for-profit Society, covering our costs is essential to our survival. Taking advantage of our subscription is just one way in which you can help BATS to continue to stage shows of the highest quality.

There is a limited number of subscriber tickets, which will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. The offer runs from 1 June - 31 July 2010.

All ticket sales for The Haymarket now have to be made via the Anvil Arts Box Office, which is managing this Offer on our behalf. Rest assured that all proceeds from ticket sales and donations will be paid directly and completely to BATS.

I very much hope that we can count on your continued support.

Yours very sincerely,

Bryn Hughes
Marketing and PR Officer
